The Outstanding 50 Year Lawyer Award was the first award established by the Texas Bar Foundation in 1974. The award recognizes attorneys whose practice spanned fifty years or more and who adhere to the highest principles and traditions of the legal profession and service to the public.

Allan is the oldest of nine siblings raised in the military family of Col. Keith and Lavira DuBois. In June 1967, he married Pam, graduated from UT Austin, and received a Regular Army Commission. Upon attaining his J.D. from UT Law School, Captain DuBois served as an appellate defense counsel and branch chief, representing convicted soldiers in appeals, earning The Meritorious Service Medal.

Honorably discharged in 1974, he practiced with “Lang, Ladon, Green, Coghlan & Fisher” for 25 years as a civil trial attorney, primarily in tort and business litigation. He is now a sole practitioner, still actively engaged in trial work and enjoying serving as a credentialed mediator.

Allan is a proud member of ABOTA; also recognized for 35 years as an AV rated Preeminent attorney. He is a former President of the State Bar of Texas, San Antonio Bar Association, Trustee of the Texas Bar Foundation, and Past Chair of the Texas Lawyers Assistance Committee. Allan was recognized with a “Ralph Mock Award” for peer assistance with Lawyers Concerned for Lawyers. He volunteers with Texas Lawyers for Texas Veterans; and is currently the Chair-Elect of the Texas Center for Legal Ethics.

Allan and Pam celebrate their 54th wedding anniversary this year, and are blessed with four children, fourteen wonderful grandchildren and a precious great granddaughter.

Kelly Frels
Houston - Sustaining Life Fellow

Kelly Frels, a native of Lolita, attended Texas State University where he was President of the Student Body and later a Distinguished Alumnus. After law school at The University of Texas, he joined Bracewell & Patterson in Houston. He began representing the Houston Independent School District and developed a national representation as a school lawyer. As one of the founders of the State Bar’s School Law Section, he is considered by many as the Father of Texas School Law.

Kelly served as President of the Houston Bar Association before becoming the Managing Partner of Bracewell & Patterson. Now an emeritus member of the Greater Houston Partnership’s Board, he was a leader in the organization’s successful campaign to improve Houston’s air quality to meet federal standards. After serving as President of the State Bar of Texas, he chaired the Texas Center for Legal Ethics.

He has been involved in youth baseball and softball for 20 seasons, beginning while in college and concluding with grandson Will’s and granddaughter Carson’s Tee Ball teams. Kelly and Carmela, his wife, partner and supporter of 50 years, have daughter Catherine and lawyer son Jonathan and wife Layne. He and Carmela enjoy watching and photographing birds, travel and spending time with friends in Galveston.

Kelly is a Sustaining Life Fellow of the Texas Bar Foundation and currently Of Counsel with Bracewell LLP.

Harriet Eellan Miers
Dallas - Life Fellow

Harriet Miers is a partner at Locke Lord. After clerking for Judge Joe E. Estes, she became the first woman hired by Locke Lord and later to lead the Firm. Ms. Miers was selected the first woman President of the Dallas Bar and was elected the first woman President of the State Bar. In 2001, she joined the administration of President George W. Bush, and served as Staff Secretary, Deputy Chief of Staff For Policy, and Counsel to the President.

Ms. Miers was inducted into the Texas Legal Legends, the highest award bestowed by the State Bar recognizing lawyers for their lasting impact and extraordinary contributions to the legal profession. She also received the Texas Appleseed Award, presented to “luminaires that have helped shape Texas for the better and whose work has been inspiring.”

She currently serves on the Texas Access to Justice Commission. She serves as Co-Chair of the Legal Services Corporation Leaders Council, a national group of influential leaders from various industries formed to help raise public awareness of the dire need to provide legal aid to the poor. Ms. Miers chairs the Board of the Center for American and International Law.

TERRY O. TOTTENHAM
Austin - Sustaining Life Fellow

A partner of the firm now known as Norton Rose Fulbright US LLP since 1978, Terry Tottenham’s practice encompasses complex litigation in both federal and state courts throughout the United States.

Terry formerly was head of the firm’s pharmaceutical and medical device litigation practice group and Partner-in-Charge of the Austin location. Terry was certified in Personal Injury and Civil Trial Law by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization in 1987. He also is certified in Civil Pretrial Practice and Trial Advocacy by the National Board of Trial Advocacy.

As State Bar President, Tottenham initiated Texas Lawyers for Texas Veterans, a statewide coalition of Texas lawyers who provide pro bono legal services to needy veterans and their families. This popular program has been replicated, in one form or another, in all fifty states. He also was the first recipient of the David Garner Pro Bono Award by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization and received a Texas Law Fellowship Excellence in Public Interest Award.

As Chair of the American College of Trial Lawyers Teaching Trial and Appellate Advocacy Committee, he created a CLE program for public interest lawyers that is being used throughout the United States and Canada.

For 30 years, he taught Pretrial and Trial Civil Litigation Strategy at the University of Texas School of Law.

Also, he has given hundreds of presentations to lawyers, physicians and other health care providers throughout the United States.

The Outstanding Law Review Article Award honors a law review published by one of the Texas law schools. Kem Thompson Frost’s article “Unclaimed Treasure: Greater Rule-of-Law Benefits for the Taking in Texas” is the 2021 Outstanding Law Review Article.

KEM THOMPSON FROST
Houston - Sustaining Life Fellow

Kem Frost served as Chief Justice of Texas’s Fourteenth Court of Appeals, where, over nearly 22 years, she authored more opinions than any other judge in the history of the court. A native Houstonian, she holds a B.A. and a B.B.A. from The University of Texas, a J.D. from Texas Tech Law School, and an LL.M. from Duke Law School.

Before becoming a judge, she enjoyed a fifteen-year civil trial and appellate practice, focusing on business litigation, first as an associate with Liddell Sapp (now Locke Lord) and then as a shareholder at Winstead, P.C.

She has received many honors and awards for her service on the bench and in the community. Her writings appear in law reviews as well as Judicature, The Green Bag Almanac, and other journals. A recent inductee into the Texas Leadership Hall of Fame, she has held leadership positions in several organizations and professional groups. She currently serves on the boards of Scribes—The American Society of Legal Writers, Texas Tech Law School Foundation, and Garland Walker Inn of the American Inns of Court. Married for 32 years, she and her husband Fred, Executive Counsel at ExxonMobil, have four sons.

A $1,000 donation has been made to The University of Houston Law Center for publishing Kem Thompson Frost’s article.
In 1987, the Texas Bar Foundation created the Outstanding Jurist Award to honor an active federal or state judge. In 1995, the Foundation received a bequest to the endowment from the estate of Mrs. Samuel Pessarra in honor of her late husband for the purpose of funding the Outstanding Jurist Award. The award was renamed the Samuel Pessarra Outstanding Jurist Award in 1995. The recipient must have served on the bench for a minimum of 10 years and exhibit an exceptionally outstanding reputation for competency, efficiency and integrity.

JUDGE XAVIER RODRIGUEZ
San Antonio - Sustaining Life Fellow

Xavier Rodriguez is a former Texas Supreme Court Justice and currently sits on the bench as a United States District Judge for the Western District of Texas. Born in San Antonio, Texas, he received his bachelor's degree from Harvard University, a master's degree from the University of Texas LBJ School of Public Affairs and a Doctor of Jurisprudence degree from the University of Texas Law School.

Prior to assuming the bench, he was a partner in the international law firm of Fulbright & Jaworski (now known as Norton Rose Fulbright). Judge Rodriguez is a frequent speaker on continuing legal education seminars and has authored numerous articles regarding employment law, discovery and arbitration issues. He is the editor of Essentials of E-Discovery (TexasBarBooks 2014). He is a member of The Sedona Conference Judicial Advisory Board, the Georgetown Advanced E-Discovery Institute Advisory Board, and serves as the Distinguished Visiting Jurist-in-Residence and adjunct professor of law at the St. Mary's University School of Law. He was elected to membership in the American Law Institute and is a Fellow of the American Bar Foundation and the Texas Bar Foundation.

In 2011 he was awarded the Rosewood Gavel Award for outstanding judicial service from the St. Mary's University School of Law. In 2017, he received the State Bar of Texas Gene Cavin Award for Excellence in CLE, recognizing his long-term contributions to continuing legal education. He is Chair of the State Bar of Texas Litigation Section and Past Chair of the State Bar of Texas Labor and Employment Law Section and Past Chair of the State Bar of Texas Continuing Legal Education Committee. He is currently enrolled in the Duke University, Bolch Judicial Institute’s LLM Program in Judicial Studies.

The University of Texas School of Law received a $1,000 scholarship donation in honor of Judge Rodriguez.
Ronald D. Secrest Outstanding Trial Lawyer

The firm of Beck Redden LLP established the award in honor and memory of Mr. Secrest, a gifted trial lawyer and a founding partner of the firm. The Ronald D. Secrest Outstanding Trial Lawyer Award was established to recognize an active trial lawyer. The award recognizes a trial lawyer who, in his or her practice, has demonstrated high ethical and moral standards and has demonstrated exceptional professional conduct, thus enhancing the image of the trial lawyer.

Billie J. Ellis, Jr.

Billie Ellis is an outstanding practitioner, dedicated to the Bar and the public. At Winston & Strawn, Billie focuses his real estate and corporate practice on a broad spectrum of private equity, financial, commercial, and real estate transactions that includes the acquisitions, financing, development and sale of all types of properties and companies. He has spent over three decades providing guidance to members of the bar and law students about real estate, private equity, finance, and U.S. legal history. In addition to his practical scholarship in various aspects of business law, Billie has been involved in academia with an emphasis on The History of The American Law Firm. Billie received the annual Texas Exes Teaching Award from the University of Texas at Austin.

Writing is a lifetime passion for Billie. He has written four books about real estate law, and co-authored and participated in hundreds of presentations and law review articles. Billie is also dedicated to the exploration and application of relevant historical events and figures to modern law. His works are especially entwined with President Abraham Lincoln and how his life as a prairie lawyer influenced his politics and practice. Billie wrote a chapter that was included with several Lincoln scholars in “The Legal Career of America’s Greatest President, Abraham Lincoln, Esq,” published in 2010 by the University of Kentucky Press. This is the definitive book on President Lincoln’s legal career.

Billie received his B.A., with high honors, from The University of Texas at Austin and his M.B.A. from Southern Methodist University. He received his J.D. from the University of Houston Law Center.

Billie is married to Joy, a partner with Norton Rose Fulbright US LLP, and has three children, William, Stephen and Emily Ellis, and two grandsons, Liam and Lincoln Ellis.

Frank Branson

Frank Branson is the founder of the Law Offices of Frank L. Branson, an established and successful trial firm in Dallas. The firm’s reputation has been built on some of the region’s highest profile court battles. In addition to headline-grabbing jury verdicts and settlements, Branson and his firm are committed to promoting the legal profession’s highest standards.

Branson’s list of professional honors and awards is extensive, but he is most proud of being able to level the playing field for folks like he grew up with in White Settlement against some of the largest companies in the world. He feels fortunate to be able to represent people whose lives have been devastated and then help give them hope for the future. He has had the good fortune to compete against the best in the business and has enjoyed both the thrill of victory and the agony of defeat.

Branson says that trying lawsuits has taken him to places and allowed him to do things that he’d never even imagined existed. The profession has allowed him to walk with both paupers and kings and to learn to treat them both with the dignity they deserve.

A special thank you to Beck Redden LLP for their continued annual $10,000 unrestricted contribution to the Texas Bar Foundation in support of this award.
The Gregory S. Coleman Outstanding Appellate Lawyer Award was established in 2011 in honor and memory of Gregory S. Coleman. The award celebrates the high ideals and standards that Greg demonstrated in his appellate practice and personal life. The recipient should exhibit an outstanding appellate practice while maintaining a strong commitment to providing legal services for the underserved. Dedication to mentoring young attorneys should be evident as well as a strong moral compass to guide both professional and personal pursuits.

Marcy Hogan Greer is the Managing Partner of Alexander Dubose & Jefferson in its Austin office. Her appellate and trial practice includes class-action and mass-tort cases, including federal and state multidistrict litigation. She has handled class actions of all types and envisioned and created the American Bar’s best-selling book, A Practitioner’s Guide to Class Actions, serving as National Editor for its original and second edition, and will be National Co-Editor of the Third Edition anticipated in 2021.

Marcy was elected as the Diversity Officer of the Tort Trial & Insurance Practice Section of the ABA (2019-2021), and is currently the TIPS liaison to the ABA Diversity Center. She has also been active in the State Bar of Texas Appellate Section. She was awarded the 2017 Louise B. Raggio Award given by the Texas Bar Association’s Women and the Law Section.

Marcy was elected to the American Law Institute and is a member of the by-invitation-only Federation of Defense and Corporate Counsel. She currently serves on the Executive Committee of the Center for Women in Law, as well as a trustee, Greenhill Fellow, and former President of the Texas Supreme Court Historical Society; a member of the Board of Governors for the Bar Association of the Fifth Federal Circuit; a member of the Texas Supreme Court Advisory Committee; the Secretary and a board member for Marathon Kids.

After clerking for the Honorable Carolyn Dineen King of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit, Marcy joined the law firm of Fulbright & Jaworski L.L.P., where she practiced for almost twenty years and was a partner for ten years. She has been Board Certified in Civil Appellate Law by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization since 1997.

A special thank you to Yetter Coleman LLP for their continued annual $10,000 unrestricted contribution to the Texas Bar Foundation in support of this award.

The Terry Lee Grantham Memorial Award was endowed through the Texas Bar Foundation in 2014 by Terry Lee Grantham’s family and friends. As an enduring tribute to Terry’s life and work in the practice of law, this award is made annually to an outstanding Texas lawyer. The award celebrates Terry’s life as a gifted and committed man and lawyer who devoted himself completely to every task he undertook. Each recipient of this award must exemplify the qualities of an accomplished, talented and dedicated practitioner, a servant of the profession and an advocate for those we serve, demonstrating dedication and service with the same passion that defined Terry’s life and work.

Terry Bentley Hill is a Dallas criminal defense attorney and nationally recognized mental health advocate who has become a vocal proponent for mental health rehabilitation in the criminal justice system. Additionally, Terry serves her profession as a leader in attorney wellness initiatives.

After earning a Broadcast Journalism degree from the University of Texas at Austin, Terry became a television news reporter covering the criminal courts. It was then that she decided to become a participant in rather than an observer of the legal system and made law school a goal.

The road to law school was long (twenty-five years) and fraught with life-quakes and tragedies that included the suicidal deaths of her former husband (an attorney) and youngest daughter. It was those events that defined the kind of attorney and advocate Terry would become.

At the age of fifty, Terry received her J.D. from Texas A&M University School of Law. Immediately after passing the bar exam, Terry volunteered with the Texas Lawyers Assistance Program and became active in the Dallas Bar Association’s Peer Assistance Committee.

A prolific writer, speaker, and CLÉ presenter, Terry’s advocacy for attorney wellness was rewarded with the State Bar Presidential Citation, the Best Feature/General Interest Series of Articles Award for the Mental Health Awareness Series in the DBA Headnotes, and the DBA’s Outstanding Committee Chair Award.

Beyond her law related activities, Terry launched her own non-profit foundation with a focus on mental health awareness and education. It is through this organization that Terry carries her message of hope and healing to audiences throughout Texas and beyond. #stopmindingyourownbusiness.com.

Texas Tech University School of Law received $5,000 in honor of Terry Bentley Hill’s receipt of the Terry Lee Grantham Memorial Award.
